MEDIAVEST AND DIGITAS FORM KRAFT FOODS ONE TEAM TO SERVICE GLOBAL AOR

Susan Canavari of Digitas Appointed to Lead the Combined Team

NEW YORK - January 6, 2010 - MediaVest and Digitas announce the formation of Kraft Foods One Team to serve the Global AOR relationship, uniting the agencies and Kraft Foods-dedicated talent. The Kraft Foods One Team combines the capabilities of MediaVest and Digitas in a seamlessly integrated, digitally centric organization that delivers cross-channel activation and scale, as well as content solutions, analytics and innovation. The Kraft Foods One Team will be activated inside MediaVest, with the organization reporting to Bill Tucker, CEO, MediaVest.

Susan Canavari, executive-vp of Digitas has been appointed to lead the combined team. She will report to Tucker in her new role and continue to report to Tony Weisman, President, Digitas Chicago Region, Global Client Leader, in her Digitas duties.

"The Kraft Foods One Team fuses together MediaVest and Digitas resources into a powerhouse team of talent and capability. This AOR was structured to deliver tremendous synergy and agility that drives ROI and builds Kraft Foods' business," said Tucker. "Further positioning it for success is the appointment of Susan to helm the team. She's established a reputation across both organizations, and with the Kraft client, as a world-class leader, a brilliant business mind and digital visionary."

"The Kraft Foods One Team is a demonstration of VivaKi's commitment to liquid talent come to life. We're thrilled to bring our resources and talent to this powerful collaboration on behalf of Kraft Foods," said Weisman. "Susan's business acumen and experience across traditional and digital channels makes her the ideal leader for the team."

"By moving strategic thinking and capabilities into one core team, the Mediavest/Digitas team will take an integrated approach to delivering world-class marketing for our business. Digital media will automatically be incorporated into everything we do, so we'll be able to manage and leverage our media investment in a more flexible way," said Mark Stewart, VP Global Media Services, Kraft Foods. "Susan's leadership, business, digital and innovation experience, as well as knowledge of Kraft Foods, give her a unique skill set to create a new servicing approach and model that will strengthen our brands communications programs."

Susan Canavari

Canavari originally joined Digitas in 1988 and after a two year stint at Ogilvy, rejoined the agency in 2007 as Executive Vice President at Digitas where she has led the Kraft and additional key client relationships as well as the office's new business efforts. At Ogilvy, Canavari served as senior partner, worldwide client services director where she led the integrated Time Warner Cable account and was worldwide direct marketing lead for Lenovo. An expert in digital and direct marketing, Susan built her career at Digitas, helping to launch and establish our presence in the U.K. and successfully leading General Motors accounts are among her many accomplishments during the 15-plus years she has spent at the agency.
